BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Tshwane South TVET College is a college located in Centurion in the south of Pretoria. The Student Representative Council (SRC) is planning a protest march against the subminimum requirements as stipulated by the Department of Higher Education for students who do not qualify to seat for final examination if their year mark is a fail. The protest march will be arranged from the college head office in the Pretoria CBD. You are Tebogo Malapela, the secretary of the SRC at the Centurion campus, and the meeting is scheduled for 21 March 2016 at Auditorium Centre at 10:00.

Address: Tshwane South College (Centurion), Tek Base, LYTTELTON 0140

QUESTION 1: NOTICE AND AGENDA

The SRC chairperson, Ms. Cloudy Koba Mokomane, has informed you that she requires an urgent meeting with the executive members of the SRC of Tshwane South TVET College at the Centurion campus, to discuss the protest against the subminimum requirements as stipulated by the Department of Higher Education for students who do not qualify to seat for final examination if their year mark is a fail.

Draw up the formal notice and agenda for this executive committee meeting.

NB: The meeting is scheduled for 21 March 2016.

QUESTION 2: PRESS RELEASE

The executive committee of the SRC has agreed to call a media conference to inform the public and the community about the protest march against the subminimum requirements as stipulated by the Department of Higher Education for students who do not qualify to seat for final examination if their year mark is a fail. You (Tebogo Malapela) are responsible for compiling the press release. You took down the minutes during the SRC meeting which indicated the date, time and routine at the Department of Higher Education and Training at 222 Struben Street in the Pretoria CBD (ADDENDUM A).

Draw up the press release using these core notes.

QUESTION 3: ITINERARY

You, Tebogo Malapela, as the secretary of the SRC, have been given the responsibility to draw up an itinerary for the protest march which will take place on 22 April 2016. The itinerary is the planned route to be followed before handing over the memorandum at the Department of Higher Education and Training in the Pretoria CBD. It will also be sent to the metro-police traffic department in order for them to assist with traffic control and supervision during the protest. You discussed the route with the SRC chairperson and took core notes during the meeting (ADDENDUM A).

Use the following core notes to help with the writing of the itinerary:

- 3.1 The Tshwane South SRC executive committee members will meet for 30 minutes (08:00-08:30) to finalise all the logistics before the actual protest march commences.
- 3.2 Immediately after the SRC meeting, the student body will meet at the college square for about 50 minutes (08:30-9:20).
- 3.3 The students will then start with the protest march to the Department of Higher Education and Training. This will take \pm 3 hours (09:20-12:20).
- 3.4 The students will march back to Centurion campus square and this will take approximately one hour (12:20-13:20).
- 3.5 The students will peacefully disperse from the college square to their respective homes at 14:00.

Refer to ADDENDUM A, which contains some of the information that is useful, as well as the information stipulated from background information.

QUESTION 4: ACKNOWLEDGEMENT LETTER

Seven days after the march protest against the subminimum requirements as stipulated by the Department of Higher Education for students who do not qualify to seat for final examination if their year mark is a fail, Mr. Qonde (deputy director) wrote an acknowledgement letter and directed it to the chairperson of the SRC (Ms. Cloudy Koba Mokomane). In his letter he explained that Dr. Ramoroka, the director of TVET colleges, is currently in Mauritius for TVET colleges best practice workshop and that he will be back in the office in November 2016. He promised students that he will forward the memorandum to him, and he will respond personally.

Follow this structure when writing your acknowledgement letter:

- Say thank you
- Give a reason why the employer cannot answer
- Say when he will reply
- End with goodwill
- Sign on behalf of the employer
